

Black Swan On Your River

Buy you a Cabriolet and make a trip to St. Tropez.
Take the night train to Verona or a night flight to LA.
Ride a gondola through Venice or have a breakfast in Paris.
Just do it, do it now!
Because a Black Swan can always swim on your river anyhow.
(Than a time has come, when perhaps you can't do nothing anyhow.)

Hitchhike through some country and sleep in different cars.
Build a tree house in your garden and sleep under the stars.
Start an own business or make a movie with yourself.
Just do it, do it now!
Because a Black Swan can always swim on your river anyhow.
(Than a time has come, when perhaps you can't do nothing anyhow.)

Live in a monastery for a long time or just a while.
Buy breakfast for a homeless man or give a stranger a smile.
Spend money for nothing, for things you definitely don't need.
Just do it, do it now!
Because a Black Swan can always swim on your river anyhow.
(Than a time has come, when perhaps you can't do nothing anyhow.)

Write a poem or change the colour of your hair.
Have a one-night stand and don't forget of her.
Get so drunk that you don't remember anything.
Just do it, do it now!
Because a Black Swan can always swim on your river anyhow.
(Than a time has come, when perhaps you can't do nothing anyhow.)
