

Carnival Refugee

The calender shows,
today is carnival, carnival.
People have to be happy all the days
of carnival, carnival.

But he won't swing into motion,
won't be happy today,
so he takes his things and goes.
He can't laugh by order,
can't even loose a smile.
He's a Carnival Refugee.

And the radio says,
today is carnival, carnival.
People have to dance all the days
of carnival, carnival.

But he can't dance by order
won't be happy today,
so he takes his things and goes.
He can't laugh by order,
can't even loose a smile.
He's a Carnival Refugee.

The nights are long all the days
of carnival, carnival
And the girls are hot all the days
of carnival, carnival

But he can't love by order,
won't be happy today,
so he takes his things and goes.
He can't love by order,
can't even loose a smile.
He's a Carnival Refugee.
